

No. R-507. House concurrent resolution honoring Robin Hadden for her 28 years of outstanding public service as a rural letter carrier in Huntington.

(H.C.R.353)

Offered by: Representatives Wood of Waterbury and Stevens of Waterbury

Whereas, Robin Hadden came to Vermont to study at Middlebury College, where she majored in Chinese, and

Whereas, she subsequently moved to Huntington and has resided in the town for many years, and

Whereas, for 28 years, Robin Hadden worked with distinction for the U.S. Postal Service as the rural letter carrier in Huntington, and

Whereas, her exemplary work as a rural letter carrier provided an unsurpassed quality of service to the residents of the town who were on her mail route, and

Whereas, Robin Hadden provided caring and supportive postal delivery service in the community, and

Whereas, her commitment to performing the duties of a rural mail carrier matched a Vermont-modified version of the famous slogan long associated with the U.S. Postal Service, “neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night [nor mud] stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds,” and

Whereas, in that spirit, she delivered the mail faithfully, persevering despite the weather conditions, and

Whereas, Robin Hadden showed a generosity of spirit toward her coworkers at the Huntington Post Office, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly honors Robin Hadden for her 28 years of outstanding public service as a rural letter carrier in Huntington, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to Robin Hadden.
